- 2 New Business
- 2 Committee Reports
- 2 Announcements
- 3 March Meeting
- 3 Patchwork Quilt Rice

40 members present. No guests. Sandy Navas joined the Guild. Welcome, Sandy!!!!

Roll call question was “what was the best valentine present you ever received?”

Janet Loveless gave the Treasurer’s Report

Minutes were approved as mailed. Secretary Barbara Wilkerson read a letter from Dodie Gibbs who had also enclosed her 2011 dues.

Old Business

Dues need to be paid tonight so that yearbooks may be complete and distributed at the March meeting. Dues are $17 and youth membership is $.50. Please make sure all your information is correct in the yearbook and if not notify Judy O’Donnell or Deloris Foster.

Katherine Stevenson presented the amendments to the By-Laws that were mailed to the members. Katherine moved the recommended changes be adopted, seconded by Vicki Jackson; the motion passed. The revised by-laws will be printed in the yearbook.

New Business

The St. Joseph Public Library has asked for a presentation on the History of Quilting. Katherine Stevenson and Dedra Litherland volunteered to do a program. Carla Proctor moved and Dedra Litherland seconded a motion to provide this presentation. Motion passed. The presentation will be at the East Hills Library, Monday, March 28th at 6:30 pm.

Committee Reports

Courtesy Nancy Grace has been ill and get well card was sent

Ways and Means Cirra Wright had nothing to report

Trips/Retreats Vicki Jackson reminded the members of the retreat in March. There are a few spots still open. The cost is $165 for the 4-day retreat.

Announcements

Secret pals will be revealed at March meeting. New ones will be chosen. If interested in participating, be sure to submit your name.

Vicki Jackson asked how many would be interested in participating in a "Block of the Month" next year. Several showed interest and Carl Hentsch volunteered to design the blocks.

Darla Owens had attended a Breast Cancer Survivor Group meeting and took some of the pillows donated by the Guild. The Survivors really appreciated the pillows and one commented that she never leaves home without it.

Carla Proctor complimented Nancy Root on the website.

Carla also compiled a list of the charitable projects the guild participated in last year which is quite impressive. They are;

Quilts displayed in the St. Joseph Museums quilt show (3 locations)

Pillows for breast cancer survivors

Hospice gowns

Quillows for underprivileged children

Quilts to Children's Mercy Hospital

Provided classes at Living Community of St. Joseph

Respectfully submitted:

Barbara Wilkerson
Secretary
