Katherine Stevenson gave the history of the Piece Corp Quilters Guild.

YWCA was celebrating their 100th anniversary in 1988. The St. Joseph YWCA is the oldest Y in the state of Missouri, built in 1888. In 1988, October 1988, the YWCA held a 100th anniversary and a group called the Tailor Maids who made quilt that still hanging in the Y held a quilt show at the YWCA during the celebration. During the celebration the audience was asked if they were interested joining a quilt group. 8 people joined, Katherine is the only one left of the original group. They started with a Librarian and a recorder for the Newsletter person. Katherine started out hand writing the newsletter and mailing it to each member on a monthly basis for 25 years. The guild started out holding meetings at the YWCA in 1988. In 1990 the guild moved the meetings to the Ashland United Methodist Church, on Ashland Avenue. We had 2 segments in the group the elderly ladies met in the morning and the younger ladies met in the evening. The same program was available to the morning and evening groups. The library was packed and moved in and out each meeting. They started videoing the meetings in the evening and showed the video to the day group. This made it easier to have the same program for both groups. After 2 or 3 years they decided officers were needed sign up for hostesses and doing programs. The meetings started with Show and Tell. We made challenge quilts, quilts for groups to use for raffles. The first quilt show was the first year after the group had formed it was held in the old Missouri theatre. The Missouri Resident Theatre Group put on a play called "The Quilters", we held a quilt show that was set up on the mezzanine in the theater at the same time, quilt blocks were made into a quilt from the theatre group, it measured 15' X 20'. We made quilts for The Window, home for unwed mothers, Helen Davies State School, Noyes Home, Green Acres, United Cerebral Palsy, Children's Mercy Hospital and the YWCA Abuse Shelter and area nursing homes. The guild made bags to hang from walkers, breast pillows for cancer patient and hospital gowns. Charity has always been a part of our guild, many of these items are still being made today, this has always been a strong part of our guild. We have had retreats, great programs, workshops, the fellowship continues to this day. We have a monthly newsletter we go 12 months out of the year we have had our picnics and parties as we continue to do today. The guild has grown into a large guild today with almost 100 members.

Adjournment: A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Sherry Gardener and seconded by Karen Schlup. Motion passed.

Show and tell followed and was enjoyed by all.

Respectively submitted by Nancy Root

Tip for a quilt label

This is a cute label created by Bonnie K. Hunt.

This is a little inspiration for you when you are trying to decide how to label your quilts.

This is the quilt that love built.
This is the quilt with strings so bright
Pieced by Becky long into the night
Sent 'cross states on an overnight flight Quilted by Bonnie with hopes that it might Wrap 'round Marie with a warmth just right

The story behind the quilt with this label is very touching. If you go to her site you can read the story and see many other ideas to use on your quilts.

Free quilt pattern from Bonnie K. Hunter. This quilt measures 60" X 72" and would be good for the Veteran quilts. Go to the following link to get the printable pattern.
