- VA Quilt workshop –August 23rd Saturday, at the Agency Methodist church 9:00 am.

We have plenty of fabric to use. We will be doing a lot of cutting of kits. If you have a project you are working on that is okay too. Return your completed star blocks if you signed up and took blocks be sure to finish them and return them to Bobbie at the September 8, 2014 meeting so they can be pieced together to make quilts.

-Mystery Quilt – Kelly Lacina, and the ladies who participated in her mystery quilt workshop showed what they made. (A Pillow Top or a Cutting Mat carrier bag)

-Crazy Quilt - August 23rd, 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. at the library conference room behind East Hills. You will need to purchase a pattern it is $8.00.

-Baby Quilts – Barb Wilkerson, for Noyes Home, September 13th, Agency Methodist church 9:00 am to whenever...

There is baby fabric available from donations, etc. and a sign-up sheet for the workshop. If you take fabric you are agreeing to make a quilt. If you take fabric, please sign-up that you are taking it so we can keep track of the quilts we will have to donate. We will also have some kits ready for you to take.

Make them as regular baby size quilts. The new Nursery Crisis Center of the Noyes home does need receiving blankets. There will be an Open House for the New Crisis Nursery Center August 8th from 5-7 pm.

-Hospice Gowns -Karen Schlup made 6 hospice gowns with fabric purchased by the guild and Vernalee Carter will be taking the gowns to Aceracare Hospice in Savannah, MO.

Courtesy – Jacque Defenbaugh was in the hospital for surgery and sent a thank you note for the rose that was sent to her, “thanks for the cards and emails you are the best”.

-Row Quilt Round Robin - Stay after the meeting to see Dedra Litherland so we can talk about these projects and swap.

-Volunteers for workshops -We need volunteers for the workshop stations for the October 6th meeting. If you have an idea for a workshop and would like to help, please see Dedra after the meeting.

-Sewing & Quilt Expo in Kansas City October 9, 10 & 11 in Overland Park, KS.

Old Business:

-Opportunity Quilt - for a Christmas quilt $1.00 ea. or 6 for $5.00 tickets are still available. See Clara Kline. Clara showed the quilt at the Agency festival, Saturday, July 26th and sold $109.00 worth of tickets. (Total as of 8-4-14 is $398.00)

-Quilt Pins -Kelly Lacina said she still has quilt pins for $5.00.

-Sweatshirts and T-Shirts -Carlene Makawski said there were still t-shirts and sweatshirts available for purchase what she has is it, no more will be printed. Please talk to Carlene if you want a shirt she will no longer carry them in and out of the meeting.

New Business:

-Raffle vs. Opportunity Quilt –Bobbie suggested we start naming raffle quilts, opportunity quilts. Some people when approached to purchase a ticket for a raffle quilt will not purchase them because they feel that would be gambling. An Opportunity Quilt is an opportunity to own a quilt. This is a better way to look at it by selling opportunities for the quilt. A vote was taken and it was agreed to call them Opportunity Quilts from now on.

Carlene Makawski opted to let the guild show the Christmas Opportunity quilt at the Pumpkinfest October 10-12th on one day. This will be discussed further in the next meeting.

Dedra Litherland motioned to adjourn the meeting.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectively submitted by Nancy Root.

Kansas City is nicknamed the "City of Fountains," but in June of 2015 it will become the "City of Quilts." Fuel your creative spirit by attending the inaugural Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival. The festival will take place June 19-21, 2015, and is set to be the largest quilt expo of its kind in the area.

Kansas City is home to dozens of quilt guilds and sewing groups, rooted within a strong history of quilting in the area. Quilts from the legendary Kansas City Star blocks have been made worldwide, and for the past 85 years "Kansas City" has been a familiar name to quilters across the globe. This festival provides the perfect opportunity to get inspired for your next project, be it traditional or contemporary.
