Greeters tonight were: Donna Giddens, Bobbie Foster

Minutes were accepted as emailed.

Treasurer report given by Kathy Stockett. Ending balance $8,674.47. Accepted as read.

Ways & Means: Culver's night is June 21, 5 - 8 p.m. They have volunteers already set up.

Courtesy: Kelly Lacina read a TY note from Nancy Swymeler on behalf of Birth Right. She read a TY note from Mosaic Hospice for gowns.

Charity: Lanette Bocquin announced that she received 2 hospice gowns and a baby quilt tonight. Also, Sole Hope is no longer accepting donated fabric shoe kits because there are no funds to do repairs. The charity committee will make another recommendation at a later time.

FQ Birthday Club: Hazel recognized the June birthdays and handed out FQ bundles.

Announcements: The KC Regional Quilt Festival is June 15.

Carlene announced that the Pony Express Museum will be participating in Solar Eclipse events and she suggested that the club make a quilt for display. Any member who wants to participate is invited to bring an 8" finished (8 ½" unfinished) block to the July meeting. Look online for solar eclipse ideas.

June notes and minutes were taken by Mary Gaston, Thank you!
