Piece Corps Quilt Guild

August 7, 2017

The Meeting was called to order at 7:00 by President Murla Leahy. There were 44 members and 1 guest in attendance.

Hostesses were Jennifer Sprague, Barb Miller, Karen Leake and Becky Tritten.
Greeters were Terry Massengale & Carol Fangman.

Minutes were accepted as emailed and the Treasurer report was given by Kathy Stockett. The ending balance of $8,964.47 was accepted as read.

Beth Carmichael, Director of Development at the St Joseph Convention and Visitors Bureau, gave a very informative program about the Solar Eclipse. Murla Leahy and Carlene Makawski gave the first showing of the Eclipse quilt that guild members made before going on display at the Pony Express Museum for the eclipse.

Bobbi Foster gave an update on the upcoming Guild Garage Sale scheduled for September 16th from 8:00 to 3:00 at Robidoux Row Museum. She will be scheduling guild members to work the garage sale on Saturday and to help with set up on Thursday the 14th and Friday the 15th between 9:00 and 3:00. There will be a Garage sale work day on the Saturday, August 10th at Lady of Guadalupe Church so that members can start pre-marking their donations.

Kathy Stockett reminded everyone that the next Culver's night will be September 27th. Please support the guild by signing up to help and inviting family and friends to eat supper at Culvers that night.

The Guild has pins for sale for $5.00

Just a reminder that members of the charity committee always gets first choice of donated fabrics to be used by their committee before donations are offered to individuals.

The distribution of the Fat Quarters for the Fat Quarter Birthdays for August will be given out at the September meeting.

Announcements:

Donna Harrison from Top Stitch Quilt Shop invited everyone to the Trunk show that her shop was presenting on August 27 on Alphabet Soup and to the Fabric Weaving class that they will be presenting beginning Oct 14th.

Top Stitch will be participating in the Northcott Pony Express Block Party that starts in September.

The meeting was adjourned, followed by Show and Tell. Respectfully submitted by Barb Miller
