Treasurer report given by Kathy Stockett. Ending balance $8,423.80. Accepted as read.

Old Business: The Eclipse quilt is on display at the museum entrance. It was shown on national news, but not locally.

Garage Sale: Ads have been placed in several free media. It was moved, seconded, and approved to place an ad in the News Press. The sale is Sat., Sept 27, from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m.. Drop off is Thurs and Fri, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Volunteers are needed for all 3 days. Left over items will be donated to appropriate charities.

New Business: Volunteers for a Nominating Committee are Kelly Lacina, Janie Kemp, and Dedra Litherland. The slate will be presented in November, voting takes place in December.

Ways & Means: Culver's night is September 27, 5 – 8 p.m.

Courtesy: Kelly Lacina read a TY note from Marsha Fairbanks family. She sent a get well card to Lorianne Mathews. Members encouraged to send cards to Lavita Bunse who fell.

Charity: Carol Fangman announced that they received several hospice gowns, pillows, and dream bags. The guild is ordering more dream bag labels.

FQ Birthday Club: Hazel recognized the September birthdays and handed out FQ bundles. Reveal will be in March 2018.

Announcements:

Hazel collected nearly 100 pillowcases to send to Houston.

Northland Needlers quilt show is September 15 and 16.

Carl is having garage sale October 7. Lots of fabric and patterns.

Karen Vulgamott has cases of tea towels available for $1.50 each.

The meeting was adjourned, followed by Show and Tell. Respectfully submitted by Barb Miller as given to me by Mary Gaston. Thanks Mary!
