Following the program on Nickel Quilts by Pat Speth, the June 2019 meeting was called to order at 7:50 PM at The Pony Express Museum by President Barb Wilkerson. There were 54 members and 4 guests present. Guests were Joan Dixon, Laurie Wall, Rita Daves, and Mary Burgess. Greeters were Marge Bodenhausen and Hazel Meade. Hostesses were Karen Moore, Cyndee Dvorak, Bobbie Foster, and Donna Giddens.

May minutes were accepted as emailed.

May treasurer report was read and approved for audit, including a correction to the May report.

Karen Vulgamott: This month's tips were ideas for using leftover batting scraps.

Charity: Janie Kemp reported that 4 lap quilts were delivered to Abbey Woods.

Yearbook: Terry Peppers announced that some membership books were printed with the "J" page missing. She has replacement books.

Garage Sale: Murla Leahy reminded members that the dates for the garage sale are Sept 12-14, which includes set up through tear down. She needs volunteers to sign up for committees. Members are encouraged to make items for the boutique.

Workshops: Kelly Lacina reviewed workshop dates. There is one opening for Big Stitch on June 29 and the supply list was sent. The "Crazy Quilt" workshop is full and Terry has started a waiting list. Sign up for the Hand Applique workshop will be circulated in July.

Picnic: The July meeting is a potluck picnic at the Central Christian Church. Members should bring a side dish or desert to share. The meal will be at 6:00 p.m. and there will not be show and tell.

Announcements:

Members were reminded to make quilt blocks for the Bicentennial Quilt Challenge and bring them to the July picnic.

The meeting was adjourned, followed by Show & Tell.
