

Piece Corps Quilters Guild

October 2019 Issue 361

October meeting: Oct 7, Pony Express Museum, 914 Penn St, St. Joseph MO

Program: "Coloring with Fabric" presented by Jane Deskis

October Greeters – Carol Fangman, Linda Wise

October Hostesses – Bev Lowry, Carol Sparks, Jacque Defenbaugh, Janie Kemp

October Birthdays

10/7 Hazel Meade

10/7 Karen Moore

10/31 Jenni Litherland

Following the program "Batiks" presented by Cat Nix Designs, the September 2019 meeting was called to order at by President Barb Wilkerson. There was one guest, Pam Speak, and one new member joined, Joy Sander. Greeters were Linda Jones and Mary Adams. Hostesses were Mary Gaston, Barb Miller, Jennifer Sprague, and Becky Tritten.

August minutes were accepted as emailed.

September treasurer report was read and approved for audit. Ending balance was $5,818.28, with Charity Balance of $2,272.73.

Charity: Janie Kemp reported there were 2 cutting workshops for charity quilt kits. They took 15 lap quilts to hospice and Diversicare.

Courtesy. Donna Giddens read a thank you note from Penny Kuhnert. Thank you notes were sent for donations of batting and fabric.

Publicity. Carlene noted that an announcement about the garage sale was sent to the NewsPress.

Garage Sale: Murla Leahy reminded members that the garage sale is this Saturday. Leftover boutique items will be donated to charity. Members should wear guild shirts while working, if they have them.

Workshops: Kelly Lacina announced sign up for the machine quilting workshop in November is available.

Program: Carla Proctor asked for ideas and volunteers for a round table program in February. Topics such as paper piecing, gadgets, etc. There will be a block exchange next month. Members should bring a 12" finished block in a fall theme such as fall colors, fall fabrics, Halloween, Thanksgiving, etc.

Membership: Carol Fangman reminded members to wear their name tags at meeting or pay the 25c fine. Also, interest in the Fat Quarter Birthday Club seems to be waning, but anyone who is interested should let her know so she can determine whether there is enough interest to continue next year.

Announcements:

The new guild t-shirts should be available at the October meeting.

Respectfully submitted by Mary Gaston