Committees

Membership and Yearbook: They reported that currently had 59 paid members. They were also working on getting picture updates and everything ready for the new yearbook. Thanks Ladies as this is a huge job.

Program: Lori Matthews reported that all months were tentatively filled. She really wants input from members on programs of interest to folks. Thanks to several members that have offered to give a program (like Nancy Roots tonight). The program schedule is listed at the bottom of the minutes.

Workshops. Murla was not able to be at the meeting but has since emailed me that due to several conflicts she may be rescheduling the jacket workshop later in year. More details to follow.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:30

Nancy Roots presented an unbelievable program on Miniature quilts. She certainly is extremely talented and incredibly patient. Beautiful!!

Greeters This will be included in next months newsletter
